

A train journey marked the start of the break, with a familiar support worker alongside the client.

02 / 05 | A day by the sea

A beach day brought sea air, a walk and time together, with a familiar member of the support team alongside.

A coastal cruise offered changing views of the shore and time to enjoy the journey.

Seals resting on a sandbank were a highlight of the river trip. Time to notice something new was part of the holiday too.

An evening together

A gentle walk, a meal and a favourite dessert brought the break towards its close.